

New Resources March 2009

Have you checked out the new resources in your region's collection? These will help to make your tutoring sessions both enjoyable and effective.

Start to Read Series: 5 titles – very simple readers for the beginner reader, illustrated in colour and/or photos. Titles: Coffee Time, Moving House, The Hair, The Soccer Game, The Soccer Club.

Quick Reads: Short novels: 16 titles for the becoming independent reader - or read a chapter each week to the beginner/middle reader. Photocopy (enlarge for the beginner) and they may enjoy following along as you read to them.

Passages to English: Book 1 (Beginner to Middle student) Book 2 (Middle to Becoming Independent). 15 very short reading texts in each book, followed by a number of written activities. Designed for CaLD students, but equally valuable for our non CaLD students.

The Oxford Picture Dictionary: Picture dictionaries and workbooks in 3 levels. Great for CaLD students who need to extend their vocabulary. Divided into themes - a great way to tutor your CaLD student.

A Whole New World: Excellent for the beginner CaLD student. Photocopiable worksheets.

Ship or Sheep and Tree or Three: Pronunciation books with accompanying CD for your CaLD student to practise their English pronunciation.
